

WILD IRELAND

EXPLORING THE WILD ATLANTIC WAY

SEPTEMBER 26TH - OCTOBER 6TH 2019

From the Rose of Tralee to Dublin's fair city, Ireland is an almost mythic land of lyrical folk song, romantic poetry, turbulent history and deep green fields. Wild Ireland focuses on the dramatic beauty of the rugged West Coast, where the Atlantic Ocean first hits the European continent.

Join Discover Europe for an in-depth exploration of the Wild Atlantic Way, stretching from County Donegal in the north down to County Clare. From the pre-Celtic hill forts punctuating the island to her dramatic seascapes and fabulous formal gardens, Ireland is a land of gracious discoveries. Our itinerary offers an introduction to Ireland for travellers who want to see beyond the tourist façade and explore the epic history of this small island.

We begin in Dublin, one of Europe's recent success stories, which has emerged from the recent recession more vibrant than ever. The city is introduced with panoramic sightseeing and there'll also be free time to explore its superb museums or wander through Temple Bar and the revitalized riverfront.

As we head north, we'll stop in the Boyne Valley to gaze in wonder at the 4,000 year-old tombs of the Newgrange Necropolis. We continue northwest to our castle hotel just outside Donegal and work our way south through the legendary beauty of Connemara. We'll pause at the grave of W. B. Yeats, in the shadow of Benbulbin Mountain, and explore "Yeats Country" en route. From Galway, we'll take a day-trip over to the Aran Islands and then turn south to Co. Clare, as we discover the extraordinary flora of The Burren, a unique landscape of geological wonder, and visit the dramatic cliffs of Moher.

This fall, join us on an adventure to Wild Ireland.

We'll stop for a photo opportunity at Mullaghmore Head and Creevykeel Court Cairn, and pay our respects at the grave of W. B. Yeats in the church at Drumcliff, before continuing on to Sligo, where we'll have time for lunch. It has a rich history, stunning views, and an impressive Victorian Walled Garden. After our guided tour, you will have time to explore the grounds of Westport House and take a walk on the many walking paths around the estate, before we gather again to make our way to our next hotel just outside of Galway. You will have time to check in and relax at the hotel before we head into Galway for a city tour and dinner. (B, D) OVERNIGHT: GALWAY

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 4TH - Today we take an excursion to Inishmore, the largest of the Aran Islands, set in Galway Bay (in the event that bad weather prevents flying today, we will substitute an alternate excursion). On arrival we'll enjoy a tour on an island mini-bus, or simply pick up a bicycle at the town pier and explore the island independently (no private cars are allowed on the island). We visit mystical Dun Aengus, a 2000 year-old fort with an imposing position overlooking the Atlantic, and The Aran Island Heritage Centre. The Islands are still largely Gaelic speaking, and maintain many of the traditional Irish Island customs, which reflect the harshness of island life. Observe local ladies hand-knitting traditional Aran sweaters. We return to the mainland late afternoon and return to Galway for a free evening. (B) OVERNIGHT: GALWAY
